

Hear ye, hear ye!

*The City of White Plains
in cooperation with
The White Plains Historical Society
Presents:*

A Day in the Life of Colonial White Plains

Take a trip back to Colonial White Plains of 1776 at the start of the Revolution and the birth of New York State

*Saturday, June 18, 2016
Tibbits Park, South Broadway
Colonial Town open from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM
The Declaration will be read at 12 Noon
(Rain date: Sunday, June 19, 2016)*

Come see and hear a dramatic reading of the Declaration of Independence by Master Storyteller Jonathan Kruk

as it was read by Judge John Thomas in White Plains - July 1776

Experience Colonial life on the town green with cooking and crafts demonstrations, Revolutionary soldiers, and Colonial townsfolk

** ADMISSION FREE ****

CITY OF WHITE PLAINS

Celebrating 100 Years | 1916 - 2016

This event is part of the City's Centennial Celebration