
The Daughters of Liberty's Legacy, Inc.

PRESENTS AN HISTORIC TROLLEY TOUR THROUGH "COLONIAL WHITE PLAINS"

Back by popular demand, the Daughter's of Liberty's Legacy will be offering a trolley tour of historic places and sites of the American Revolution in the White Plains area.

The trolley tour will include the sites of the court house where the Declaration of Independence was read for the first time in 1776, the battlefield of the Battle of White Plains, Miller house where Washington stopped the British from advancing north and more. Included is a private tour of historic Purdy house by the White Plains Historical Society.

A Colonial re-enactor, "Mrs. Ann Miller", who lived through the war, will accompany us and provide details of what life was like.

Trolley Tour meeting place...

Purdy House

60 Park Ave • White Plains, NY

Sunday, October 18th, 2015
at 2:00 pm

Donations suggested:

$50 per person

(all proceeds go to historic preservation)

Light refreshments included

Seating on trolley limited

Tickets available at: DOLL1776.com

or by contacting:

debra@daughtersoflibertyslegacy.com

or calling

Debra: 914 495-3631

Experience the historic "neutral ground" of the American Revolution by trolley.

Join our tour guides to hear fascinating stories of local Patriots.

The trolleys beautiful natural oak interior will take you back in time and the big windows allow a great view. Seating limited to 20 people each tour – reservations a must. Non-refundable, rain/shine we go!

