

The fire on Main Street on December 22, 1937 caused considerable damage. Left, Bowman's Florist on corner of Wall Street. Brookfield Street upper right by Kresges five and dime store. On July 31, 1954, a deadly fire on Main Street killed two firemen, Bernard Callahan and Salvatore Galasso, when the roof gave way beneath them.

Photo: WPA

The Hagner building fire on Railroad Avenue near Grove Street in the winter of 1908, caused considerable damage to adjoining buildings and livery stables in the rear. Photo: Rosch, WPA.

